

REAL/SCOPE[®] framework is the foundation for managing development, deployment and maintenance activities. This framework, REquirements Assessment and Linking/Schedule-COst-Performance Engineering[®], is a set of services that form the basis for life cycle management. This framework is applicable to both service and application delivery.

